AN ITCHING PALM

No Cure for It. Other Forms of Itching

There is no cure for an itching palm-the money kind. Even poslam, the new skin disthe most annoying of itching skin troubles, poslam will stop the itching at once and cure the worst cases in a few days. So with hives, rash, scables, split toes, piles and scaly SEARCHERS FIND BODIES scalp, all of which are different forms of eczema, accompanied by severe itching and caused by imperfect digestion and careless diet. Poslam comes in two-dollar jars, but fifty cents' worth will answer in curing any of the diseases mentioned. It can be had of any druggist, Ogram's, O'Donnell's, Affleck's and the People's Drug Store make a specialty of it. That results are immediate will be amply demonstrated overnight by the use of the experimental sample which the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th street, New York city, will send free by mail, in plain wrapper, to any one who will write for it.

FENIAN CAMPAIGNS.

Accused of Treason and Stabbed in O'Donovan Rossa's Office Twenty-Three Years Ago.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., September 14 .with treason to the cause of Ireland by O'Donovan Rossa, chief of the dynamite campaign against Great Britain and was had gone half way. Crazed by thirst the pistol couldn't have been put there, murderously attacked in Rossa's New they wandered about until they were over- inasmuch as it was found when the vault York office January 10, 1885, died yester- come by the heat and lie down to die. day in this city, which had been his home for twenty-five years.

Capt. Phelan was born in Ireland in His activities in the Irish cause first became generally known after he had been other trace of the man. nearly killed by Richard Short in New 1883, about the time that ten men were as wealthy. sent from this country by the leaders of the Fenian cause here for the purpose of killing Carey, who had turned informer against O'Donnell.

Murder of Lord Cavendish. It was charged that O'Donnell had murder Secretary Burke, and there were laid L. Roderiguez, a section laborer, was shot so fully. to him other political crimes and part of through the brain and instantly killed by After breakfast, at a tiny but immacuthe campaign of murder and destruction the accidental discharge of Melendez's re- lately clean inn, somewhat away from the not?" Trafford repeated. hich a portion of the Irish leaders supported at that time

What Phelan really did during that visit tract public interest until Short attacked him in New York and inflicted eleven stab Roderiguez's brain. latter was taken to his side to be identified, but the bullet glanced off a metal badge in Short's pocket. It then appeared that Phelan had been quoted a week previously in the Kansas City Journal as having given an interview describing how he had prevented an explosion of dynamite upon a British steamship, the Phelan was reported to have said that while he was in England in 1883 he learned that J. F. Kearney, an Irish agitator, plotted to blow up the British Queen with dynamite, but took no part in that plot himself until it had failed. He explained then that the plan was merely to destroy a British vessel as one of a series of outrages in protest against British rule of Ireland. It subsequently appeared that Carey, the informer, was have taken passage on the British but failed to do so. marked "cement," found in the hold of the veessel and not claimed, were opened and infernal machines were discovered

In telling the story in the Kansas City paper the name of the Anchor line steamsaying that Kearney had reported his failure to blow up the vessel after it had docked in Liverpool because the passengers were taken off in a tender and he was unable to attach the mechanism which should have caused the explosion. No dynamite was found on the Queen. Phelan said he had informed the steamship officeers to prevent an explosion at sea and the death of many innocent per-

Told of Dynamite Plans.

The story attributed to Phelan gave many details of Irish plans for dynamite outrages and aroused violent wrath among the so-called Irish patriots, then very active in America.

letters of denunciation and threats and started at once for New York to explain broken and he is hurt internally. The his position. He was attacked by Short n Rossa's office the day after his arrival. He recovered, and the affair lost interest. until as a champion of Capt. Alfred Dreyfus he issued a challenge to a duel to Maj. Esterhazy in 1800. Capt. Alfred Dreyfus had just been convicted a secand time. The challenge received no at-

Convention Delegates Leave.

A number of colored Baptist ministers eft Washington this morning to attend the National Colored Baptist Convention, which begins in Columbus, Ohio, tomorow. The list includes Revs. S. G. Lamtins, W. Bishop Johnson, Alexander Wilbanks and others. Booker T. Washngton will be one of the speakers of he convention. Rev. Mr. Limkins will also make an address.

Striking Mill Workers Return. The troubles of the forty striking millworkers employed at the mill of the Thomas W. Smith Lumber Company, 1st ind O streets southeast, have been adusted and the men returned to work his morning. Mr. Smith signed an agree-stances when their time was out.

A PLEASANT WAY TO CURE CATARRH

Poor deluded victims!

Continual sprinkling and spraying and stomach

What are you doing it for? Trying to kill the catarrh germs?

Might just as well try to kill a cat with freth

Sticking a piece of chewing gum in the upper oft-hand corner of the right ear would slaughter ust as many germs.

You can't kill the germs that cause catarrh inless you get where they are.

You can get where the germs are by breathing lyomei, the powerful yet soothing antiseptic, which is prepared especially to kill catarrh Just breathe it in, that's all. It gives joyful

It is sold by leading drugists everywhere. A

frs. Wm. Burton, Owoeso, Mich., June 22, 1909. | Clerk Maurice Latta.

Death Valley.

Made Crazy by Thirst, Two Men Lie Down to Die.

HUNTING FOR YOUNG ELDRIDGE

Believed to Be Dead-His Burro Found Wandering on Sands.

RHYOLITE, Nev., September 14.-The bodies of Emory Bodge and Tom Flanz, miners, who perished of thirst while at- Beckwith had found it sufficient to get road. Not a man was to be seen, but be-NOTED PARTICIPANT IN IRISH tempting to cross Death valley, were the story of Billings and the knockdown, yound a fringe of evergreens they heard found Saturday four miles west of Skidoo, and to give his indorsement of the judg-Cal., by members of the searching party ment that Grimbleshaw had based therescouring the desert for a brother of Presi- on. Then he had said: dent Eldridge of the National Sewing for a man who hasn't had the advantages Machine Company, who has been lost for of a full legal training, and I was sur-

Search for Eldridge.

reach this place from his mining claims by whoever robbed the vault after the screaming again: 1836, but traveled much about the world in the Panaminil range. He left his com- murder was committed. Yet Trafford. and won the reputation of an expert with panions three weeks ago. Men from all claiming to be a detective, tells us that Ah tak you valeese you no gif eet, n'est the broadsword and the pistol. He served the desert camps have searched the des- the pistol has ceased to be significant!" with distinction in the Union army and ert. The burro which he took with him fulness these words had rung through his fulness these words had rung through his head and all night long he had seen "I've the old man covered," he said, found a few days ago, but there was no Horace Calden standing, flushed and glancing at his pistol. "Is that your

Kills as He Begs Water.

the nerveless hand, the bullet entering posite him, said:

OPENING OF CONEY ISLAND MARDI GRAS MARRED.

Policeman's Horse Plays Havoc friend Billings usually comes to the line Among the Revelers-Its Owner Will Die.

NEW YORK, September 14.- The openmarred last evening by an accident in adian soil, while if a Canadian attempts which one person was mortally hurt and it, he's in the United States. It's said four others were less seriously injured. that only once have officers of both coun-Mounted Policeman Charles Stevenson tries joined in the effort, and since neither was thrown from his horse and the ani- mains a mystery just what they did enmal fell on him, after it had kicked in counter as to jurisdiction. While St the side of an automobile owned and Martins is confessedly on Canadian soil, ship was given, and Phelan was quoted driven by Walter Staude of 648 East 23d street, Flatbush, and sent Mr. Staude, his wife and twelve-year-old son sprawling on the road.

> The horse ran down Surf avenue, knocking men and women down, with Mounted Sergeants Alfred Taylor and Daniel Rigney and Mounted Patrolman low him, and where he's sure of protec-

> William Thompson in pursuit. At West 19th street Thompson tried to leap from his saddle after he had and we've got to work a little carefully, grasped the bridle of the runaway. His or all we'll really see is the streak of > to the Reception Hospital. The former's to that which Trafford had indicated as skull was fractured, three of his ribs their destination. Twenty miles they > badly bruised, but will recover. attended at the hospital and later taken near the train. Trafford was talking with the conductor of the train, who seemed home. Thompson's home is at 175 Conover street, Brooklyn.

> The runaway horse had to be shot after it was caught at West 22d street and Surf avenue. Despite the accident, the merrymaking Despite the accident, the merry making conductor was saying.
>
> of the carnival crowd went on. While der if you'd make quicker time to go ing crowned several hundred of their loval subjects were being uncrowned for if there was one abomination to the crowd it was the "lemon lid." Above the blare of trumpets that an nounced the approach of the royal party along Surf avenue, which was one mass the car: of color and bright light, coul. be heard the voice of rumor saying that Queen had decided to set up their throne in a Manhattan flat. "Yes," said Burt G. Lewis, father of her royal highness, "Mabel and Harry have been company for a year, and it looks as though it's a go.

Mabel Lewis and King Harry J. Smith

The Cook-Peary Claims.

Will you kindly explain through your valuable columns and to one much in- trymen, "I've no doubt it'll be all right. nent with his workmen yesterday after- terested in this predicted controversy be- I really don't know the roads. I merely 100n. which is satisfactory to them. The tween Dr. Cook and Lieut. Peary why it warned you on general principles." rouble grew out of the employment of round men to learn the trade and their round men to learn t having gone by a different route or both you've done in the last six months,' going by the same, but at different times. growled the man in the car. It occurs to me that it is most cruel that the public press shall brand Dr. Cook a fraud before he has an opposite the cook a fraud before he has an opposite the cook a fraud before he has an opposite the cook and tunity to prove himself genuine. If he departing train, whose engine might be alie, with a tow of sand and gravel carhas endured all the hardships that he fancied as snorting in sympathy with the rying lighters for a lower Potomac point; would have to endure in attempting to indignation of the conductor. find the pole is it not more than cruel to Grimbleshaw, as they started puffing into inson, light, for a down-river point to handed hold-up of a stage coach with was Mr. Harriman when he was your add to these hardships this lack of confi- the sudden depth of trees. dence expressed by his countrymen? E. G. STUART.

> possibility that both Dr. Cook and Com- too, with a chauffeur who knows every mander Peary may have reached the rock and rut in the road to the American north pole. The controversy over polar creek." honors turns solely upon the question On they rushed, over roads hard frozen, reach the pole on the 21st of April, 1908. pede, and Grimbleshaw felt his heart Commander Peary flatly denies this and beating fast at the prospect before them, promises proofs. Dr. Cook repeats his as- while Trafford sat apparently unmoved, Commander Peary.

Secretary Carpenter's Return.

the summer with the President, is ex- or ten miles, when they came suddenly days taking aboard a cargo of railway and that no one was hurt, that the pris- Ninety-eight licenses were issued. elief in five minutes. It is guaranteed by Henry Evans, 922-24 F st. n.w., to cure catarrh, will leave Beverly tomorrow. Mr. Carbrought to a sudden halt and Trafford plete her load of about 12.000 ties. The penter has been working hard all sum- and the officer leaped to the ground, the barge Hooper, which is loading 17,000 mer, and is due for a vacation, but he one going up the road for a rod or two, ties at Alexandria, will be a week or two may decide to remain at the White and the other down. In a moment they longer in completing her cargo for New omplete outfit, including inhaler, costs $1.00. House. Assistant Secretary Forster, were back and into the car. The officer York.

Extra bottles, 50c. Cures sore throat, coughs who has been at Beverly, will return to spoke in a low tone to the chauffeur, who one of the large clay and brick carry-Washington with Mr. Carpenter. Assist- turned into the way to the left and be- ing lighters owned by the John Miller "I take especial pride in recommending Hyomei the President on the trip. Mr. Mischier over and spoke in Grimbleshaw's ear:

"I take especial pride in recommending Hyomei the President on the trip. Mr. Mischier over and spoke in Grimbleshaw's ear:

"An auto has gone south within fifteen have her hull thoroughly overhauled and

The Altenburg Case.

By GEORGE DYRE ELDRIDGE.

COPYRIGHT, 1909, BY GEORGE DYRE ELDRIDGE.

XXVIII.

At the Border of the Stream.

almost touching each other, and the long put on more speed. But the fugitives had lines of fence, which divide the narrow strips of farmland, running into the dis-

Young Eldridge was attempting to vault was broken open. Therefore, it get!" when he started across the valley was head, and all night long he had seen stammering, with eyes fixed on the pis-Young Eldridge had extensive interests tol that he had, on the spur of the mo-York. It then developed that Capt. Phe- in mining claims along the range of Death ment, admitted to be his own. What did face; he leaned forward and peered lan had gone to England from America in valley, he and his father being regarded it mean, and why had Beckwith, loyal as through the early dusk he was to his clients, been at such pains to have missed? At last the perplexity bustle of the railway station. Trafford The Canadian was looking at him. with evices and went borers were sheltered, held out his re- them there. Grimbleshaw had just finchange. The weapon was discharged by Trafford came in and, seating himself op- found voice to say:

> We're to start in fifteen minutes. That There's a white man at St. ped down from, for in these border towns an ugly-looking six-shooter. they've learned not to ask questions, curious as they are by nature. Their living comes largely from Americans who don't take questioning kindly, but who do shed money with a good deal of freedom the non-questioning kind. Your about thirty miles from St. Martins, in a section that's not quite popular with lawabiding citizens. In fact, it's a section where there's a good deal of doubt as to just where the line runs, and that's held by a gang of outlaws who make their living out of the needs of fugitives from but there are always scouts out to give the man they're after is well on his way to some shelter where no officer will foltion as long as he pays the price and keeps faith. We're going to make the effort to see this white man at St. Martins, left foot caught in the stirrup and he dust he makes on his way to the debatfell. His horse stumbled and fell on able land. With the whole town looking on they took the local for Tring Junction, which doctors say he will die. Stevenson was platform, in the midst of what seemed an unbroken forest, an auto, carrying two Mr. Staude, his wife and boy were men, snorted down the road and drew up in no hurry to start again, while the took the opportunity to study the motor. round by Beauce, following pretty closely the lines of the railroads. If you get out down you'll walk to the next place where you can find a horse. Trafford came to the edge of the plat-

"Are you going to be able to make it? He spoke loudly and as if a trifle anx-"Hold on a minute, captain," he warned the conductor, who was about to you after all. What do you say?" he demanded again, sharply, turning to the man in the motorcar.

form and appealed to one of the men in

"Oh," said the conductor, shifting to the side of the men he counted his coun-

"Of course it is," said Trafford. "but what are you going to do? It's our only chance, and, of course, a slim one. St. There has been no question as to the Martins owns an auto, and a fast one,

"St. Martins lies over there ten miles."

Five miles farther on they turned points for this city. President Taft's secretary. Fred Car- sharply to the right through thick pines The big sea-going barge Atlantic, which passengers, urged the pardon on the them with exhilarating rapidity. Talk ing was impossible, for the track was rough and narrow, and they were con-When they left the train, in the gray tinually bounding back and forth, so that of the early morning, the spire of the they were compelled to brace themselves to secure any semblance of comfort. At parish church at Gegantic looked down the summit of a rise there came up to Brother of Sewing Machine Magnate on them, and before them stretched the them the "chug-chug-chug" of the flying long street of the village, with its houses machine in advance, and the chauffeur

> Down a long descent they rolled, turned a sharp corner and heard the breathing Grimbleshaw was thinking of the few of a standing motor. The chauffeur words that Beckwith had had time to ex-by barely a rod escaped running hard on change with him. Brief as the time was, to a car that stood crossways of the voices of men in sharp dispute.

heard them and their machine was flying

"Have your pistols ready." the officer called, curtly, leaping from the car and "Trafford is usually quite clear-sighted leading the way. Trafford and Grimbleshaw followed, and hurrying through the brush saw standing prised when he said that pistol had on the opposite side of the narrow creek The men whose bodies were found left ceased to have significance. After you three men, struggling for the possession Rhyolite late in August and started across left I made him see that it had a very of a dress-suit case. A tall, heavy man, Death Valley, where the thermometer boxes had held the money and papers. a firm grasp of one handle, while a reaches 130 degrees in the shade during They were empty. Hence, the money and young man, broad shouldered but short. Capt. Thomas Phelan, who was charged the summer months. They carried two papers had been taken out. But these had hold of the other. The third man

> At that there broke in the heavy voice was broken open, until after the theft had of the old man:
>
> "I'll be d—d if I do! It's a hold-up! after the night of the murder until the There's five hundred and that's all you

> > The Canadian danced the harder, man? A searching look came over Trafford's

"Yes," he said at last, "that's my man to put Trafford on a track that he seemed You agree with me, do you not, doctor?" But Grimbleshaw was standing speech SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., September 14.- of this question had almost banished the less, with his eyes fastened on the strug-Lost in the desert, Jose Melendez, after happiness of those last brief moments gling men. There was the strong frame three days' wandering, reached a Santa with Judith, and he came to the new the broad shoulders, the heavy head Fe section camp near Barnwell only to day's work wearled and apprehensive, and there, too, were the whiskers he had been told Clayton always wore. But for dered Lord Frederick Cavendish and Un- have his awful sufferings end in a tragedy. cloud over the girl who was trusting him these-he shuddered, scarcely daring to think to himself what he thought. "You agree with me, doctor, do you slowly increasing question and surprise ized that it was necessary for him to an- One Thousand Cases of the Disease volver and begged a drink of water in ex- ished his first real letter to Judith when swer something, swallowed hard and "Well." retorted the officer, "you've is, I am, and I take it you will want to taken time so you ought to be certain. Then he stepped from the bushes to the Martins, fifteen miles from here, who's edge of the creek, motioning for the been there since three weeks ago Friday others to remain in the brush, where their morning. Nobody knows where he drop- chauffeur had joined them, armed with The officer called: "Drop that case and throw up your hands, all three!" (To be continued tomorrow.)

CENSUS SUPERVISORS REMOVED FOR POLITICAL ACTIVITY.

Federal Officials in Georgia Dismissed in Accordance With President's Announcement.

should be no politics involved in the tak- selves completely mystified as to the ing of the census, President Taft has re-moved Alonzo Brand and I. T. Ackerman origin of the disease. All parts of the dead man were put in preservative for warning, and it generally happens that supervisors, respectively, for the fifth and before the officers can reach St. Martins sixth Georgia congressional districts, and & succeeds, is a democrat. Brand has been active in democratic politics of the fifth district, and is a county opened yesterday morning, with ingston, who is being opposed for re-elec- attendance at the Rockville High School tion. The opponents of Livingston charged was large, probably 250 pupils being presvisorship as an asset for Livingston, and ent. Prof. Roger J. Whiteford is princithat Brand was using the census super-

> J. D. Strickland. Brand is a democrat, and Hill, who takes his place, is a republican. Ackerman is a republican, and Strickland, who special Correspondence of The Star.

Ackerman, who resides at Macon, is mittee of that district, and would not resign his position after being named supervisor. He is a son of Amos T. Ackerman, who, for a time, was Attorney General in the market; tug Capt. Toby, with a tow from a down-river point; tug Camilla, with a tow from a down-river point; tug Minerva, towing sand-laden lighters from Greenway.

ALONG THE RIVER FRONT.

Arrivals.

Schooner Etta, scouring sand from a lower Potomac point to the dealers C. C. Co., schooner barge No. 16, light, to Georgetown to load soft coal for Boston; schooner Hallie K., oysters in the shell to the dealers here; schooner Eleanor signal the train to start, "we may go with William H. Bizler, oysters in the shell for the dealers here; schooner J. E. Skylight, melons from a Potomac point for "What we've agreed to do we'll do," answered the man, sullenly. "If you don't go I'll hold you to your bargain; I've done my part."

Departures.

point to load back to this city; schooner Potomac point to load back to this city; Cook a fraud before he has an oppor- climbed into the car to the noise of the to load lumber for this market; tug Eosschooner Magnolia, light, for the Potomac "Isn't this a little conspicuous?" asked oyster beds to load; schooner J. P. Robload back to this port.

Memoranda.

U. S. A. steamer Joseph Henry has ar- Potter. rived at Baltimore from this city; schooner Five Sisters is at a river point to load convicted of holding up the stage in Tex- higher than to have.' lumber for this city; steamer Dennis as he was sentenced, May 20, 1885, to life Simmons is at a North Carolina port imprisonment at hard labor, the charge whether Dr. Cook did. as he asserts, but as yet without snow enough to im- loading lumber for this city or Baltimore; being robbery of a mail carrier and using schooner Sidonia Curley will return to a deadly weapon, whereby the carrier's Examining Board Wants to Install the Rappahannock river to load lumber life was placed in jeopardy. He has sertion and declares that he will prove and the Canadian officer beside the chauf- for this city; schooner E. P. Evans is at served almost twenty-four years, partly that he was at the pole one year ahead of feur maintained silence, unbroken save a river point preparing for the oyster at Chester, Ill., and latterly at the Leavonce when he pointed to the right and running business on the river during the enworth, Kan., penitentiary.

fall and winter; barge Stanton has been Mrs. J. W. White, wife of the presifall and winter; barge Stanton has been chartered to load railway ties at river dent of the German-American National rine railway at Bennett's boatyard to By this the trees were rushing past be on the railway for a week or longer. Boeschen in the state of Oregon.

Close Daily at 6 P.M. Saturdays, 9 P.M.

Smart Fall Suits For Young Men, $10.

Just the suits for college fellows. Cut in the newest styles and with all the latest finishing touches, they instantly appeal to the critical taste of young men. Then, too, the fabrics and workmanship are such as to assure the utmost service. A pleasing assortment of styles in fancy worsteds and navy blue serge.

Other Fall Suits for Young Men at $7.50 to $25.

Best Values in Boys' School Suits.

Realizing that the boys must be ready for school next Monday. we're making it worth your while to buy the necessary clothing outfits here now. These values are an index to the buying opportunities this big stock offers.

Boys' School Suits at $2.98.

A special line of Boys' School Suitssuits built for boys who require sturdy garments. Nobby double-breasted coats and two pairs of knickerbocker $2.98

Boys' School Suits at $5.

Boys' All-wool Fast Color Blue Serge Suits: double-breasted coat and knickerbocker pants. All the seams are fully secured and the lining is of the strongest sort. Sizes 7 to 17 years. Spe- $5.00

Saks & Company

Pennsylvania Avenue.

Seventh Street.

MYSTIFIED

UNABLE TO ACCOUNT FOR ORIGIN OF PELLAGRA.

Said to Exist in North. Carolina.

DURHAM, N. C., September 14.-Pellagra is spreading in this state at an alarming rate. The ninth death in this ocality occurred here last night. Two new cases were discovered yesterday, and one of the two survivors of the eleven originally afflicted will die within a week

There are said to be one thousand cases the disease in North Carolina at the ow, it is declared, is without a patient. The first autopsy upon a pellagra victim night on George Mebane, a large negro, Though the germ was found, no other trace of the disease was discovered. The neart and other organs were in perfect condition. Prior to the negro's death guinea pigs were inoculated with his They have shown no signs of the Late last night the physicians who conducted the autopsy, headed by the pathol-

ROCKVILLE AND VICINITY.

ROCKVILLE, Md., September 14, 1909. was selecting only Livingston men for pal, and the assistants are Misses Edith enumerators. Rose Henderson, Cecelia S. Kilgour hairman of the republican executive com- Frances Horner and Mary Brewer. Prof. Wilson S. Ward is in charge of the manual training department.

Miss Annie Mae Appleby of Mount Airy, Md., and Mr. Guy Harris Rowdyoush of Greenville, Ill., were married in Rockville recently by Rev. S. R. White of the Baptist Church, the ceremony taking place at the home of the minister. The September meetings of the Ladies Aid and Missionary societies of the Rock ville Baptist Church were held in the church yesterday afternoon, with a large attendance. Mrs. George E. Lewis and Mrs. M. N. Smith presided, and interesting programs were rendered. A license to marry was issued here vesterday to Miss Susan Malinda Griffith of Laytonsville and Mr. William Henry

Riggs of Unity. The base ball fandom of Montgomery county is looking forward with keen interest to the deciding games between the Rockville and Germantown aggregations for the championship of the county. About two weeks ago Germantown came down to Rockville and trimmed the local outfit, 5 to 1, and on the strength of the ictory claimed the championship of the then said: county. Rockville would not have it that way, however, so a series of games was arranged to determine the better team. The second game was played at Ger-6 to 6 at the end of the eleventh inning. when the game was called because of off. A big crowd is expected to attend.

SERVES QUARTER OF CENTURY Pardon of Man Who Held Up Stage Coach Years Ago.

A story of an Illinois boy going west, becoming a cowboy and making a singleed by President Taft in the case of L. A.

Bank of Mason, Tex., both of whom were the passengers. The watch was returned to its owner

Secretary Ballinger Cited.

10% Discount on Accounts Closed in 30 Days.

409-411-413-415-417 Seventh St.

September Carpet Sale. New Carpets and Rugs at Reduced Prices.

Our annual September Sale of Carpets and Rugs begins tomorrow. The new Fall stock is now here, and it is all included in this sale at reduced prices. It's economy to select your carpets and rugs now at these money-saving prices, even if you are not ready to have them laid.

Purchases for later delivery stored free and laid when desired. All carpets sewed, laid and lined free.

Room Size Rugs $17 9x11-feet $12.98
Brussels

$31 9x12-feet $25.75 Brussels

$31 9x12-feet

All Carpets and Rugs at Special Prices.

DELIVERS EULOGY FROM CHAIR CONGRATULATIONS CABLED TO

ON STREET CORNER.

Says Not All Rich Men Are Scoun- Prof. Pickering Says That the Apdrels, Nor All Poor Men Knaves.

NEW YORK, September 14.-Before a crowd of several hundred men and boys in Wall street yesterday, Rev. Dr. William Wilkinson, one of the clergy of Trinity Church parish, delivered a eulogy of the late Edward H. Harriman. Dr. Wilkinson mounted a chair at the The preacher began his remarks with a prayer and scriptural reading, and ed a vessel and went to Siberia. He took with him Archdeacon Nelson of New Schooner Ella, light, for a Potomac mantown Saturday, the score standing York, and together they visited the whaling fleets and gave real encouragereligious life. Often during his life Mr. o go to church.

> model man in Arden, where he lived. He was upright and noble all through in certain years differed somewhat, but me are in better circumstances than six passengers figures in a pardon grant- age, and if you live as he did perhaps in time you will reach the same position. men are not scoundrels and all poor men occasionally conspicuous with a tail of Potter lived at Salem, Ill., and when are not knaves and fools. To be is STEAM ENGINEERS LICENSED. Card Index System.

Out of 181 applicants for licenses as steam engineers in the fiscal year ended June 30, 83 were found to be incompetent, according to the annual report of the board of examiners of steam engineers, penter, who has been at Beverly during and hemlocks and ran on for some eight has been lying at Occoquan for several ground that the sentence was excessive filed with the Commissioners today. Ninety-eight licenses were issued.

The board asks for a filing cabinet, consisting of a card index containing "Paddy" Meagher, "Dutch" Berlick and oner had been sufficiently punished, and that he took only $9 and a watch from from 4.000 to 6,000 cards and file-holders Potter is fifty years old and broken in to contain the applications and accomhealth. He will be released immediately. panying letters of recommendations. The record of the work of the board is now kept in a book, which was pro-Justice Stafford today cited Secretary vided by the members of the board at to the north pole and back will be pub-

MINISTER PRAISES HARRIMAN HALLEY COMET PHOTOGRAPHED

PROF. WOLFF.

pearance of Celestial Visitor Is Earlier Than Was Expected

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., September 14 .-The cablegram received Sunday at Harvard Observatory from Prof. Wolff of Heidelberg announcing that the Haley comet had been seen and photographed by him, gave great pleasure. Prof. E. C. Pickering, the head of the

"I was highly elated by Dr. Wolff's wire, and immediately cabled him my congratulations. Although the comet in this case appears earlier than expected. astronomers all over the wor'd have had one eye open on the lookout for it. It is, you know, located in close proximity to the constellations of Gemini and Gem-

"It was the first periodic comet whose ment to those men who rarely ever return was predicted. Its discoverer Harriman' would say to those with and that he also found records of the whom he came in contact, 'I want you appearance of a great comet in 1456, 1301, 1145 and 1006. From these facts he drew "Mr. Harriman, I have been told—I his conclusions on the time that should never knew Mr. Harriman myself—was elapse between its visible visitations.

wisely saw that the differences were no way greater than could be accounted for by the attraction of Jupiter and Saturn. "At its return in 1835, it did not appear as an extremely bright comet, but was "The most remarkable of its appearances were in 1066 and 1456. The comet of 1066 figures in the Bayeux Tapestry as a propitious omen for William the Con-

To Play Colored Champions.

Washington boys who have been playing in various minor leagues of the east will cross bats with the Asburys, the colored champions of the District, at the Capital City Park tomorrow alternoon at 5 for a purse. Those who will be seen in the ine-up are as follows: Jack Carr, "Cv"

Cook at the Pole.

Dr. Cook's complete story of his trip Justice Stafford today cited Secretary their own personal expense, but it is lished by The Star exclusively in Wash-Ballinger to show cause October 15 next thought that the record should be kept ington. The first of the thrilling chapo asthmatic sufferers, as I know by experience hat it is a remedy that cures. I have not since using Hyomel had any recurrence of asthma."—

I take especial pride in recommending Hyomel to Show cause October to Show caus your newsdealer.